"The 2007 Torrontes is about as good as this varietal gets. Super fragrant, smelling of a spring flower garden, honey, and exotic spices. On the palate it is dry with a creamy texture, intense flavours, excellent acidity, and a lengthy finish. It is an ideal alternative for rich courses normally calling for Chardonnay. The Crios de Susana Balbo label has rapidly become synonymous with great value. All of the Crios wines are phenomenal values worth buying by the case. Susana Balbo is also widely credited with developing the modern style of Torrontes; hers remains the benchmark."

— The Wine Advocate, December 2007

Enticing aromas that are strikingly similar to Viognier, with hints of coriander, peach, white pear, flowers, and orange citrus fruit. On the palate, it has beautiful structure and acidity similar to Sauvignon Blanc along with enticing fruit flavours, and plenty of body for a wine that shows such delicate aromas and flavours. Fruity, floral and yet still quite dry, this wine has to be tasted to be believed. Best enjoyed in its youth either by itself, or as a wonderful partner with smoked meats, mild to medium- strong cheeses, Asian cuisines, and seafood, especially crab.
