"The 2005 Shiraz The Watcher exhibits heady notes of Provencal herbs, black fruits, and cherries as well as a luscious texture. It is a thick and juicy wine."

"Dark and juicy. A ripe mouthful of licorice-accented blackberry and black cherry fruit, hinting at dark chocolate on the open textured finish."

The Watcher Shiraz is a classic, opulent Barossa Shiraz with fine lingering tannins aged in older barrels. Rich, round and easy to drink, this is an enjoyable wine.

Rolf Binder has become one of the most famous and sought after winemakers in South Australia. He is the winemaker for several premium brands, and a consultant for many others, and was recently named Barossa Winemaker of the Year for 2005.
